PRESS RELEASE

Divine International, a renowned educational society in New Delhi, has brought world-class education to the heritage city of Gwalior, led by renowned academicians with a rich breadth and depth of experience ranging between 25 to 50 years each. Divine International is launching BBA, BCA, B.Com. (Computers), MBA and MCA at their Gwalior campus this year.

“It is a matter of great owner to be leading an educational institute where young lives could be imparted and empowered. The youth of Gwalior region will get an opportunity to realize their latent potential in life.”

Says Professor B.P. Singh, ex-Head and Dean of the prestigious, Faculty of Commerce and Business, Delhi School of Economics, University of Delhi. Professor Singh has been in academics for more than five decades. He is the chairman, Divine International Group of Institutions.

Divine International is approved by regulatory bodies in India namely- AICTE Delhi and M.P. Higher Education, Bhopal, Directorate of Technical Education, Bhopal, M.P. Affiliation from the prestigious Jiwaji University, Gwalior and Rajiv Gandhi Prodhogiki Vishwavidyalaya (RGPV) Bhopal is in process.

Along with international exposure for students through tie-ups with the United Kingdom’s Harrow International Business School ensures that scholars of Divine International would truly stand-out and have a distinct edge in today’s competitive world. Divine International Group of institutions (DIGI) has already signed a Memorandum of Understanding with University of Szeged, Szeged Hungary, Research Institute of Agricultural Economics, Budapest, Hungary, and University of Debrecen, Debrecen, Hungary. “The students exchange programs with these Universities and Institutions would provide international experience to the students of DIGI which would be distinguishing feature of DIGI.”

Says Dr. Ajay Kr. Singh, President, Divine Group having 25 years of experience in University of Delhi, currently the Coordinator of Professional Programme - MHROD in Faculty of Commerce and Business, Delhi School of Economics, University of Delhi.

“While carefully understanding the needs and requirements of the industry in the modern global environment, we at Divine International are committed to educating our students so that they not only chalk out fruitful careers for themselves but also become forerunners in their respective fields.”

Says Dr. Rakesh Kumar Batra, who has more than 25 years of teaching experience in Delhi University.

The rich experience of the Trustees and faculty members, excellent infrastructure in Divine’s 25-acre campus near Tighra, state of the art computer centre, library, industry exposure and crème-de-la-crème of Visiting Professors hailing from University of Delhi only add to the promise Divine International holds out for the youth of Gwalior region.
